NAME.

This organization shall be known as the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri, and is a part of the General Society of Colonial Wars, and its headquarters shall be in the City of St. Louis, Missouri.

OFFICERS.

II.—The officers of the Society, to be elected annually from the members of the Society, shall be a Governor, a Deputy-Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor, a Secretary, a Deputy-Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, an Historian, and a Chaplain. These officers, excepting the Historian, Deputy-Secretary and Chaplain, shall be ex-officio members of the Council; and in addition the Council shall be composed of nine other persons.

FEEES AND DUES.

III.—The initiation fee shall be five dollars. The annual dues, payable on or before January 1st of each year, shall be five dollars. The payment at one time of $75 shall constitute life membership, and shall exempt the member so paying from annual dues.

IV.—Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of the

Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13th, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19th, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General or member of the Council or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(d) Governor, Deputy-Governor, Governor's Assistant or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

V.—Members shall be elected as follows: A candidate must be proposed by one member of the Society and seconded by another. The candidate, or his proposers, shall send his name and documents or other proof of qualifications to the Secretary, who shall transmit them to the Membership Committee. The Committee shall carefully investigate the same. If the candidate be a resident within the jurisdiction of another State Society, the said Committee shall, through the Secretary, obtain the consent of the Council of such State Society before making favorable report. Upon favorable report by the Committee, the Council of this Society may elect him by ballot.

A candidate receiving two negative votes shall fail of election.

Payment of the initiation fees and dues shall be a prerequisite of membership.

GOVERNOR.

VI.—The Governor, or in his absence the Deputy-Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, or in their absence a chairman pro tem., shall exercise the duties of presiding officer at all meetings of the Society, under the usual rules of parliamentary laws, subject to an appeal to the Society. He shall have power to convene the Council at his discretion or upon the written request of two members of the Council, or upon the like request of five members of the Society.

SECRETARY.

VII.—The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all elected candidates of their admission, and perform such other duties as the Society or his office may require. He shall have charge of the seal, by-laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society, other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same to the members to whom they may be issued. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership. He shall certify all acts of the Society, and, when required, authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of printing and publications issued by the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all Courts of the Society and of the Council. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Council, and shall give notice to each officer who may be affected by them of all votes, resolutions and proceedings of the Society or of the Council, and at the General Court, or oftener; shall report the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership and those whose resignations have been accepted, and of those members who have been expelled. In his absence from any meeting, the Deputy-Secretary shall act, or a Secretary pro tem. may be designated therefor.

Society of Colonial Wars.

TREASURER.

VIII.—The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and as often as those funds shall amount to Fifty Dollars, they shall be deposited in some bank in the City of St. Louis, which shall be designated by the Council, to the credit of the Society of Colonial Wars, in the State of Missouri, and such funds shall be drawn thence on the checks of the Treasurer for the purpose of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or Council, or his office may require. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society. For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the Society may deem proper.

REGISTRAR.

IX.—The Registrar shall receive from the Society and file all the proofs upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas countersigned by him, and all documents which the Society may obtain, and he, under the direction of the Council, shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

HISTORIAN.

X.—The Historian shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemoration celebrations of the Society. And he shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Society may see fit to publish. Also a necrological list of each year, and biographies of deceased members.

CHAPLAIN.

XI.—The Chaplain shall be an ordained minister of a Christian Church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

THE COUNCIL.

XII.—The Council shall meet as often as required, or at the call of the Governor, or at the call of the Secretary, or at the written request of two of its members. Three shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall have control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. They may accept the resignation of any member of the Society. At the General Court, they shall submit to the Society a report of their proceedings during the past year. The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any members of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears, and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days, and on being dropped his membership shall cease; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application, and the payment of all such arrears from the date when he was dropped to the date of his restoration. The Council may suspend any officer for cause, which must be reported to the Society, and action taken on the same within sixty days.

COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP.

XIII.—The Committee on Membership shall consist of five members. They shall be chosen by ballot at the General Court of the Society, and shall be elected for a period of one year. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and a negative vote of two members shall cause an adverse report to the Council on the candidate's application. A candidate who has been rejected by the Council shall be ineligible for membership for a space of one year from date of rejection, except upon the unanimous vote of the Committee.

The Committee shall have power to make by-laws for its government, not inconsistent with the constitution or by-laws of the Society.

RESIGNATION.

XIV.—No resignation of any member shall become effective unless consented to by the Council.

DISQUALIFICATION.

XV.—No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when his proofs of descent or eligibility shall be found to be defective. The Council, after thirty days' notice to such person to substantiate his claim, and upon his failure satisfactorily so to do, may require the Secretary to erase his name from the membership list. The said person shall have a right to appeal to the Society at its next Court or at the General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, the said person's name shall be restored to said membership list.

EXPULSION OR SUSPENSION.

XVI.—Any member, for cause or conduct detrimental or antagonistic to the interest or purposes of the Society, or for just cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society; but no member shall be expelled or suspended unless written charges be presented against such member to the Council. The Council shall give reasonable notice of such charges and afford such member reasonable opportunity to be heard and refute the same. The Council, after hearing such charges, may recommend to the Society the expulsion or suspension of such member, and if the recommendation of the Council be adopted by a majority vote of the members of the Society present at such Court, he shall be so expelled or suspended, and the insignia of said member shall thereupon be returned to the Treasurer of the Society, and his rights therein shall be extinguished or suspended. The Treasurer shall refund to the said member the amount paid for the said insignia.

Special Courts may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interests of the Society may demand, and must be called by the Secretary on the written request of three members. All notices of meetings shall be sent out at least six days before the date of the meeting.

SERVICE OF NOTICE.

XVII.—It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary of any change in his place of residence and of his post-office address.

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP.

XVIII.—Members may receive a certificate of membership, which shall be signed by the Governor, Secretary and Registrar.

ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT.

XIX.—No alteration or amendment of the by-laws shall be made unless notice shall have been duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a Court of the Society.

The Secretary shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to the members of the Society, and state the Court at which the same will be voted upon. No amendment or alteration shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Court voting upon the same.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Society will meet annually in General Court and will hold a banquet on October 10th. This date is selected because it commemorates two most important events in Colonial history.

First—The occupation of Fort Chartres by English troops, October 10th, 1765. By the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10th, 1763, was settled for all time the question which had been in doubt for a century—whether French or English civilization and rule should shape the destinies of this continent. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghenies and the Mississippi were ceded by the French and came into possession of Great Britain. Capt. Thomas Stirling, with a company of the 42d Highlanders, came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt (now Pittsburg), arriving early in October, 1765. On the tenth day of that month he relieved the French commander of Fort Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops who ever set foot in the Illinois country. Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was in its time the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River, in Randolph County, Ill., fifty miles south of St. Louis and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

Second—On October 10th, 1774, occurred the Battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River. This was a most important battle, and the complete victory over the Indians under Cornstalk put an end to their assaults upon our frontiers.

Both these events were important Colonial footsteps in the direction of the West, and hence it seems most appropriate that this day should be selected as the anniversary of the first Society formed west of the Alleghenies.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS AND MEMBERS.

Family tradition will not be accepted by the Society for proof of ancestor's service.

No original or supplemental application will be accepted by the Society that is not complete in the following particulars:

1. Containing a reference for each act of service of ancestor.
2. No cyclopædias or genealogical works to be accepted as authority for service of ancestor, but reference required to documentary records of the various Colonies, published Archives, histories of established reputation, and recognized works of local historical accuracy.
3. Proceedings of Congress as well as the proceedings of the Conventions, Assemblies and Councils of the various Colonies.
4. The pagination of reference in all cases to be required and verified.
5. Reference to original documents to be supported by such documents, together with two type-written copies thereof, the original to be returned to the applicant after verification of copies in the office of the Registrar.
6. All applications must be endorsed by two members of the Society.

The State Society publishes a Register triennially containing the name and ancestor's service of the members of the Missouri Society, and publishes, free of charge, all supplemental applications. One copy of this book is furnished every member free. Extra copies can be had for $2.00 each.

The rosette to be worn in the upper button-hole of left lapel of the coat may be had of the Treasurer, George T. Parker, south-east corner Broadway and Locust, St. Louis, at a cost of 25 cents.

The insignia, in gold, costing $22.00, or in silver gilt at $12.00, may be ordered through the Registrar. It is optional with members whether they purchase the rosette or insignia.

The General Society issues a Diploma Certificate of Membership, engrossed on heavy parchment, with the signatures of the officers of the General Society and State Society attached. This Diploma is a fine work of art. It is optional with members whether they purchase the same. If desired, it must be ordered through the Registrar of the State Society, and costs $7.75 framed, and express charges to be added from New York to destination.

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATIONS.

When descent can be shown from more than one ancestor as described, supplemental applications may be filed—one for each additional line of descent.

FEES.

The membership fee is $5, and the annual dues $5, which sums must accompany the application.

The General Society also requires a fee of fifty cents for filing every supplemental application, which sum must accompany the same.

Blank applications and any information concerning the Society can be had by addressing the Secretary.

In Memoriam.

George Amos Newcomb.

BORN FEBRUARY 14, 1841.
DIED DECEMBER 12, 1906.

George Amos Newcomb, born in Boston, February 14, 1841, was the son of Norton and Lydia (Christy) Newcomb. He married in Medford, Massachusetts, February 3, 1869, Julia Augusta Floyd, and to them the following children were born: Norton, Charles Lawrence, George Amos, Jr., Chester (died in infancy), Harold Barnes, Floyd Turner, Dorothy Christy.

Mr. Newcomb was educated in the Boston public schools, the Medford, Massachusetts, High School, 1854-57. Graduated from the Wilbraham, Massachusetts, Academy, 1859, and from the Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, 1863. Taught school at Billerica, Massachusetts, 1862-63. He entered the U. S. Navy, January, 1864, as admiral's clerk of the North Atlantic Squadron, serving on the U. S. S. Minnesota and the U. S. S. Malvern. Resigned from the navy in the autumn of 1864 and went to St. Louis, entering the employ of his brother, Norton Newcomb, wholesale and retail dealer in wall papers. Became a partner, under the style of "Newcomb Brothers," September, 1866. On the death of his brother, in 1882, the business was incorporated as "Newcomb Brothers

GEORGE AMOS NEWCOMB.

Wall Paper Company," of which he remained as president until his death.

The Newcomb family dates in America from 1639, and his ancestors have been represented in nearly all the wars of this country, commencing with Captain Richard Brackett, a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, in 1636, and Isaac Newcomb, a private of Massachusetts troops, in 1747.

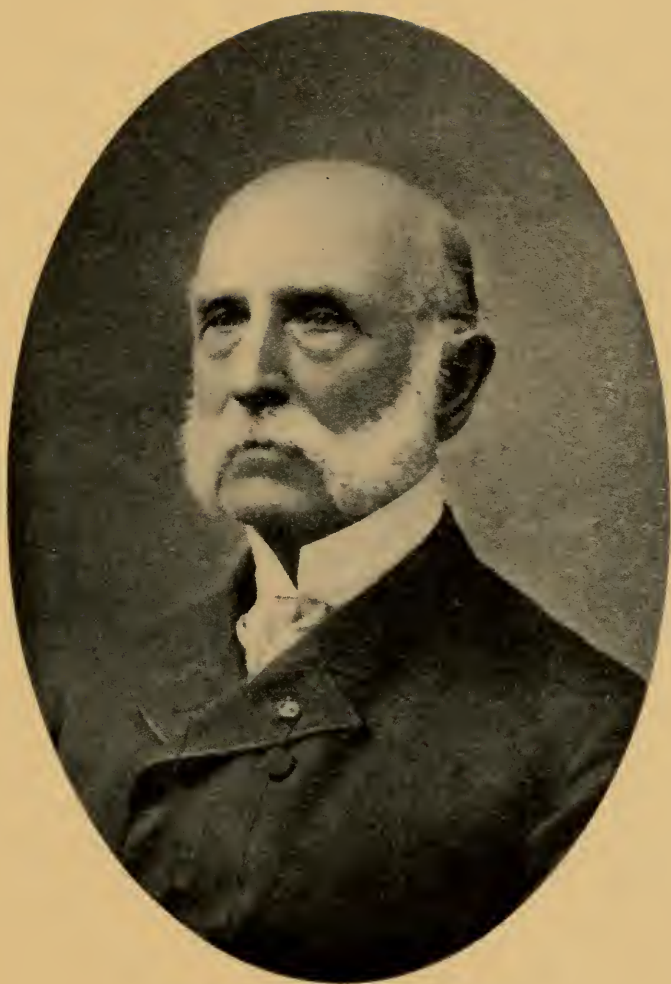

Mr. Newcomb was vice-president of the Missouri Society, Sons of the Revolution, Deputy Governor of the Missouri Society of Colonial Wars, President of the New England Society of St. Louis, Past Commander of Ransom Post, G. A. R., member of Tuscan Lodge of Masons, member of the Royal Arcanum, Legion of Honor, Electric (Phi Ne Theta) Fraternity of Wesleyan University, and member of the Country Club. He was foreman of the Grand Jury of April, 1904, which returned so many indictments in the celebrated boodle cases. Was awarded a commemorative diploma and medal for services pertaining to the wall paper exhibits of this and foreign countries at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Gen. Lewis Baldwin Parsons.

BORN APRIL 5, 1818.
DIED MARCH 16, 1907.

Lewis Baldwin Parsons was born in Genesee County, New York, April 5, 1818. He entered Yale College from Gouverneur, New York, in 1836, graduating in 1840; and, after two years spent in teaching a classical school in Mississippi, entered Harvard Law School, graduating in 1844. He at once went West, locating at Alton, Illinois, where he acquired a large law practice, and was for several years city attorney. In 1854 he removed to St. Louis, became attorney for Page & Bacon, who were then engaged in building the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, and was connected with that road for many years thereafter, being at various times director, treasurer and president.

In 1861, he determined, as he wrote, "To give all aid in my power for the preservation of the Government, as my grandfather had given seven years of his life during the Revolutionary War," and, arranging his affairs so that they could be left, he went to Washington and offered his services to General McClellan, whom he had known as vice-president of the

GEN. LEWIS BALDWIN PARSONS.

Ohio & Mississippi Railroad. He entered the army on McClellan's staff with the rank of captain, but was soon sent West at his own urgent request, reporting to General Allen, Chief Quartermaster at St. Louis, who, knowing of his previous railroad experience, ordered him to take charge of railroad transportation in the West and reform the great abuses then existing in that department. His immediate and marked success in introducing system where had been chaos caused General Allen to appoint him chief of rail and river transportation for the West, with headquarters at St. Louis. The tremendous responsibility of this position can only be properly estimated by recalling the immense distances to be covered, the great armies operating in this region, the enormous quantities of supplies necessary and the great battles fought there, while ample testimony was borne by the generals in the field, as also by Secretary Stanton and President Lincoln to Colonel Parsons' remarkable success in so organizing and managing this department, "that no military movement ever failed or faltered for lack of transportation."

He greatly desired active service in the field, but his oft-repeated request for a transfer to the line was not granted, and his only experience in field service was at Corinth, where he was on General Halleck's staff, at the Battle of Chickasaw Bayou and at the Capture of Arkansas Post, where he received special mention for bravery. Colonel Parsons remained in the West until 1864, when he was given charge of all rail and river transportation of the armies of the United States, and was ordered to Washington, where he was stationed during the remainder of the war. In 1865 he was promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General on the autographic order of President Lincoln, and, on finally retiring from service in May, 1866, Secretary Stanton conferred on him the rank of Brevet Major-General.

After two years of travel abroad, General Parsons returned to St. Louis and, in 1875, removed to his large farm near Flora, Illinois, where he spent the remaining years of his life in comparative quiet, yet taking an active interest, to the last, in the affairs of home, State and nation. He passed away, after a brief illness, on March 16, 1907.

General Parsons' right to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was through the service of his ancestor, Cornet Joseph Parsons (1618-1683), Springfield, Mass. Cornet in Captain John Pyncheon's Hampshire County Troop, 1672-78, and through the service of fifteen other Colonial ancestors.

RICHARD AYLETT BARRET.

Richard Aylett Barret.

BORN JUNE 21, 1834.
DIED APRIL 6, 1908.

Richard Aylett Barret was the son of Dr. Richard Ferral Barret and Maria Louisa Barret. He was related both on his paternal and maternal sides to some of the most illustrious families of the Old Dominion. On his father's side to the Lees, Fitzhughs, Winstons, Paynes, Overtons and others. On his mother's side to the Buckners, Madisons, Ayletts, Thorns, Taylors and others. He was born in Greensburg, Kentucky, at "Cliffland," the seat of his grandfather, Judge Richard A. Buckner. At the age of six Mr. Barret came to St. Louis with his parents from Springfield, Illinois. He attended the school of Judge Samuel Treat and Edward Wyman, also the St. Louis University. He was tutored by General Chester Harding, afterwards entered Phillips Academy, Exeter, N. H., where he prepared for Harvard College, which he entered in 1852, but left before he completed the course. He returned to St. Louis and studied medicine, receiving his degree of M. D. from the Missouri Medical College. In 1854, he went to Europe and continued his studies at the Universities of Bonn, Munich and Heidelberg, and obtained the additional degree of Ph.D. For a short time he acted as Secretary of Legation at Paris, under John G. Mason, Minister to the Court of Napoleon III. Returning to the United States, he studied law, and in 1859 was admitted to the bar. During the Civil War was the attorney for the Government in the offices, respectively, of General B. G. Farrar, Colonel James O. Broadhead, City Provost-Marshal, and General C. B. Alexander, United States Army Provost-Marshal-General for Missouri. He also acted as Chief Clerk and Private Secretary to the latter until 1866. He then went to Burlington, Iowa, and there purchased and edited the Gazette and Argus, the oldest newspaper in the State. Returning to his old home, St. Louis, at a later date, he was for a time editor-in-chief of the Evening Dispatch, and still later editor and part owner of the St. Louis Times. He served as private secretary to his brother, Arthur Buckner Barret, during his short term as Mayor, and continued with James H. Britton. He then retired from active business.

Mr. Barret married, February 27, 1862, Mary Finney, daughter of the late William Finney, an early settler and prominent citizen and merchant of St. Louis. One daughter, Mary Lee, who died at the age of seven years, blessed the union.

Mr. Barret's illness was prolonged, but borne with remarkable fortitude. Death was met bravely and peacefully on the morning of April 6, 1908.

Mr. Barret had a brilliant mind, a phenomenal memory, a facile pen. He was a student of history and his greatest pleasure was in his books. He was a man of innate refinement, of courtly manners. Had a high sense of honor, was sincere and brave, and modest and unassuming. One prominent trait of his character was his deference to those whose lot in life was less favorable than his own. He was a true friend and a devoted husband.

Mr. Barret's membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was by right of his great-grandfather, William Winston (1737-1799), a Lieutenant in the Virginia Troops in French and Indian Wars, and through the service of twenty-four Colonial ancestors.

JACOB CRAIG VAN BLARCOM.

Jacob Craig Van Blarcom.

BORN JUNE 1, 1849.
DIED AUGUST 24, 1908.

It is with regret that we record the death of Jacob Craig Van Blarcom, late President of the National Bank of Commerce in St. Louis. He was born June 1, 1849, in Bergen County, New Jersey, and passed his earlier life attending private and public schools. He graduated from the Paterson, New Jersey, High School, from which he went to a preparatory school in Jersey City, and later attended Rutger College at New Brunswick, New Jersey. Leaving college in his sophomore year, at the age of seventeen, he came to St. Louis in 1866, and was in the employ of Peterson, Hawthorne & Company, a wholesale saddlery hardware and leather house, as a traveling man. In those early days the facilities for travel were not such as they are now, and Mr. Van Blarcom's traveling was chiefly on horseback. He thus traveled over a large section of this Western country, from Omaha, Nebraska, to Corpus Christi, Texas, and over the State of Iowa and a large part of the State of Missouri. He became an accountant in the Bank of Commerce, in this city, in July, 1870. In February, 1877, he was elected Vice-President, which position he retained until the death of the President, William H. Thompson, when Mr. Van Blarcom was elected President of the National Bank of Commerce, then one of the largest banks in the West, and continued as such until his death, on the 24th day of August, 1908. In 1871, on January 19th, he was married in Chicago, Illinois, to Mary Fairfax Gamble. He has two children, Leslie Craig, born January 12, 1873, and Frederick, born June 26, 1885. His wife and one son, Frederick, survive him. The father of J. C. Van Blarcom was Jacob Van Riper Van Blarcom, and his mother was Euphemia Dixon. His father was a member of the Legislature of New Jersey, and his grandfather, Brant Van Blarcom, was at one time Mayor of Paterson, New Jersey, and his great-grandfather, Hendrick Van Blarcom, was a Captain in the War of the Revolution, and commanded a company of New Jersey troops at Valley Forge.

Mr. Van Blarcom was an unusually clear-headed and successful business man; he was emphatically an executive man, and managed the great interests submitted to his care with singular fidelity and discrimination. He was President of the Missouri branch of the American Red Cross during the great San Francisco earthquake disaster, and through his devotion and ability, large sums were collected and sent through the American Red Cross. He was a public-spirited man, and took an active interest in all movements for the betterment of his home city, and was ever in the forefront of those who were battling for the development of the resources of the West, and the building up of St. Louis as a great commercial center. In his social relations he was kind, genial and ever ready to assist his fellow-men. In his home life he was an affectionate father and a loving, attentive husband, ever ready to sacrifice himself for the good of others. His social great-heartedness and bonhomme made him one of the beloved members of the Society of Colonial Wars, of which he was a member in right of the service of his ancestor, Nicasius De Sille (1612-1683). Council, 1653-1660. Schout Fiscal, New Netherlands, 1658-1660.

JOHN FREDERIC RANDALL.

John Frederic Randall.

BORN APRIL 13, 1839.
DIED APRIL 10, 1909.

John Frederic Randall was born in Mystic, Connecticut, April 13, 1839. He was prepared for college at the Connecticut Literary Institute at Suffield, and was a member of the Class of '64, Yale, until his junior year, when he enlisted in the United States Army as First Lieutenant, 21st Connecticut Volunteers. He came to St. Louis in 1864 and continued in the insurance business there for over forty years, being distinguished for his absolute integrity. For nearly thirty years he lived in Alton, Illinois, and died there on the 10th day of April, 1909. He was married in 1870 and leaves a wife and two daughters.

Mr. Randall was a many-sided man, and his keen interest in things lasted as long as his life. He was a member of the Missouri and Illinois Historical Societies, the Mayflower and Colonial War Societies, the Sons of the Revolution, the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, and the Ransom Post, G. A. R. He was interested in the municipal affairs of his home town, and served long on the Alton School Board, and as a trustee of Shurtleff College, finding opportunities to help many young people who were starting out in life. He had an appreciative understanding of choral music, and was for twenty years chorister of his church. He loved all out-of-door things, and hunted and fished every year in the Ozark country, and along the Mississippi. The ills of the last ten years of his life did not diminish his enthusiasm for all philanthropic and Christian work, nor cloud his rare and quaint sense of humor and his hopeful views of life.

Mr. Randall's right to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was through a long line of distinguished ancestors, including Captain George Denison, Captain James Avery, Thomas Stanton, Walter Palmer, Thomas Miner, Captain George Denison, Captain John Gallup, Elder William Brewster and twenty-seven other ancestors who performed Colonial service.

Hugh C. Lane

Hugh Campbell Ward.

BORN MARCH 10, 1863.
DIED AUGUST 15, 1909.

Hugh Campbell Ward died in New York City August 15, 1909. Mr. Ward was born in Westport, Jackson County, Missouri, March 10, 1863. Westport is now a part of Kansas City, and it is here that Mr. Ward made his home throughout his lifetime. His father, Seth E Ward, a Virginian of Colonial antecedents, came West as a pioneer and engaged in the trading business across the plains. His mother was the daughter of John Harris, also a pioneer settler. Hugh Ward spent seven years at William Jewell College at Liberty, Missouri, and later attended Harvard University, from which he was graduated in 1886. He took his legal training at the St. Louis Law School, completing the course in 1888. Mr. Ward entered upon the practice of his profession in Kansas City. He had a mind especially equipped for the law, and he entered upon his career with eagerness and determination. He had opportunities at the start which not every young lawyer possesses, but these did not diminish his desire for work—his ambition to earn success. He took an active interest in the promotion of public and semi-public enterprises, and entered politics. He was elected to the Missouri Legislature in 1893, and served creditably to himself and with satisfaction to his constituents. Here Mr. Ward was a member of important committees, and became noted as a close and hard-working legislator. From 1897 to 1901 he was Police Commissioner of Kansas City and filled the office acceptably. His wealth and social position placed him beyond the temptation of office, nor could politics affect his clear judgment. No rumor of scandal breathed upon his name in office or out, and the critics of municipal affairs regretted his retirement to private life.

Mr. Ward's specialty in his profession was corporation law, and he was counsel for the Commerce Trust Company, the National Bank of Commerce, the Kansas City Home Telephone Company, and the Kansas City Long Distance Telephone Company; also counsel and director of the Kansas City Railway and Light Company, the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway, and a director of the National Bank of Commerce. Last January he resigned from most of the above positions in order to devote more of his time to private affairs. A farm of five hundred acres, formerly owned by his father, had lately been taken into the city, and Mr. Ward was having this tract of land developed into a high-class residence section.

Mr. Ward was a generous contributor to charitable and philanthropic enterprises. His life was cut short at the time of his greatest activity and widest usefulness.

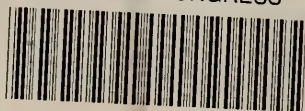

Mr. and Mrs. Ward had four children—Hugh Campbell, Jr., James Crawford, Frances and John Harris Ward, all of whom are living.

Mr. Ward's right to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was through the service of his ancestor, Seth Ward, from whom he was fifth in descent, member of the Virginia House of Burgesses, 1768.
